“Compassionate Care”

Benefits for When You Care For a Loved One in Need

Most of us think of Insurance Benefits as something that we receive to help ourselves, but what happens when we wish to assist and help with the care for loved ones in time of need? How will you be able to take the time away from your job/business to care for your loved one?

Compassionate Care – take care of a loved one with a serious health condition for up to six months, two times within the life of the policy (parent, child, spouse or domestic partner) & still receive the full benefit!

- Avoid financial strain in time of need
- Protect your income if you have to take several months off
- Alleviate stress for loved ones.....Priceless!
- The whole concept of Disability Insurance: Protect your income and be there in time of need.

Meet with Special Needs & Beyond and we will show you how to protect yourself and most importantly, your most prized possession: Your FAMILY!
